

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

POLICY NAME: Prevention of Bullying and Harassment	POLICY NUMBER: 3.1.4	CATEGORY: Administration
RESPONSIBLE EXECUTIVE: Chief Financial Officer	APPROVAL AUTHORITY: Board of Governors	EFFECTIVE DATE: June 3, 2024
NEXT FULL REVIEW DATE: June 2, 2025	REVISED: June 3, 2024	REPLACES: 1.4.0 Workplace Bullying and Harassment Prevention for Employees 1.3.2 Harassment and Bullying Prevention for Students

PURPOSE

This policy promotes the commitment of Coquitlam College (the College) to provide Students and Employees with a safe and caring working and learning environment that is free from Bullying and Harassment.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all Students and Employees of the College.

POLICY STATEMENTS

1. This College adheres to all applicable provincial and federal requirements, statues and legislation regarding Bullying and Harassment.
2. The College is committed to providing an environment where all Students and Employees feel safe, accepted and respected and, to the best of its ability will protect Students and Employees from all forms of Bullying and Harassment that threaten physical safety, social connectedness and inclusiveness.
3. The College is committed to addressing Bullying and Harassment by:
 - a. establishing, maintaining and regularly reviewing a Bullying and Harassment prevention program;
 - b. implementing and actively promoting awareness, education and training programs regarding a safe school environment and how to recognize and deal with unsafe or harmful situations;
 - c. promoting conditions that seek to eliminate the potential for incidents to occur;
 - d. reducing barriers to filing Complaints; and
 - e. responding to Complaints in a procedurally fair and efficient manner.
4. The College encourages prompt reporting of all alleged violations of this policy.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

5. The College reserves the right to initiate an investigation into alleged Bullying or Harassment on its own initiative without filing a Complaint.
6. The College reserves the right to implement Interim Measures as it considers appropriate, pending the completion of an investigation into an alleged incident of Bullying or Harassment.
7. Confidentiality is required to protect and support individuals who may have experienced Bullying and Harassment, and the reputations and interests of Respondents. All College members are expected to respect the privacy of matters arising out of an investigation and to treat matters confidentially.
8. Any College member who knowingly makes a false, frivolous or vexatious report under this policy, or who retaliates against someone who has made a Complaint, may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.
9. A breach of this policy represents serious misconduct and may be cause for disciplinary action including, where appropriate, suspension, dismissal or expulsion.
10. In accordance with WorkSafe BC, this policy will be reviewed annually.

PROCEDURES

11. The College encourages prompt reporting of all alleged violations of this policy.
12. The College will establish and maintain a program to prevent Bullying and Harassment, that will include but not be limited to the following elements:
 - a. assessing and managing risk;
 - b. providing appropriate education and training to Students and Employees regarding Bullying and Harassment and this policy;
 - c. establishing procedures for reporting, investigating and documenting incidents of Bullying and Harassment in a prompt and sensitive manner, and in accordance with WorkSafeBC regulations and policies where applicable; and
 - d. ensuring that appropriate corrective actions are taken in response to incidents of Bullying and Harassment.

Responsibilities

13. Senior Administrators are responsible for:
 - a. Developing and implementing a respectful workplace program.
 - b. Leading the development and implementation of communication, awareness, engagement and training in support of this policy.
 - c. Providing oversight of investigation processes, ensuring that reports of bullying and harassment are investigated without undue delay and in accordance with applicable policies.
14. Supervisors/Managers are responsible for:
 - a. Fostering a respectful workplace culture, free from bullying and harassment.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

- b. Promoting a work environment that encourages employees who experience or witness bullying or harassment to report the inappropriate behaviour without fear of reprisal or retaliation.
 - c. Addressing workplace conflict arising from disrespectful behaviour effectively and in a timely manner.
 - d. Ensuring measures in place to restore, support and maintain respect in the workplace following an incident of bullying or harassment.
 - e. Maintaining records of all matters arising out of the application of this policy.
15. Employees are responsible for:
- a. Contributing to a positive work environment and treating all co-workers with respect and dignity.
 - b. Refraining from inappropriate and disrespectful behaviours.
 - c. Addressing disrespectful behaviour informally when it is safe and possible to do so.
 - d. Reporting any incident of bullying or harassment that is witnessed or experienced to their supervisor/manager.

Informal Resolution

16. A Student or Employee who believes they have been subject to Bullying and Harassment is encouraged to attempt to resolve the matter informally with the person who engaged in the conduct. A written record of the steps taken to resolve an issue should be maintained.
17. A supervisor, instructor or other College employee may be asked to assist in attempting to resolve the matter informally.
18. If the matter cannot be resolved informally, or if the Student or Employee is uncomfortable with or does not wish to pursue informal resolution, a Complaint may be filed with the President.

Filing a Complaint

19. Complaints should be filed as soon as possible after an incident has occurred or after an unsuccessful attempt at informal resolution.
20. Complaints are submitted in writing to the President and must set out all relevant details regarding the alleged Bullying or Harassment, and include a list of any potential witnesses, along with a description of the information those witnesses are expected to provide. Any relevant documents, including any social media communications, should also be included with the Complaint.
21. Upon receipt of a Complaint, the President will conduct an initial review to determine whether the allegations fall within the scope of this policy. The President will have thirty (30) calendar days to conduct the review and respond to the Complainant.
22. If the Complaint falls within the scope of this policy, the President will:
- a. refer the matter to an alternative resolution process; or
 - b. appoint an Investigator to investigate the Complaint; and

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

- c. will advise the Complainant of this decision and provide a rationale.
23. If a Complaint does not fall within the scope of this policy the matter may be referred to another College policy for action.
 24. A Complainant has the right to withdraw a Complaint at any stage of the process. However, the College may continue to act on the issue identified in the Complaint to comply with its obligations under law or this policy.
 25. If the President is a Respondent, the Complaint should be filed with the alternate Safety Coordinator.

Alternative Resolution

26. Alternative resolution may be appropriate where the Complainant, Respondent and President agree to resolve the matter through a process other than an investigation. Alternative resolutions include, but are not limited to:
 - a. education and awareness of Bullying and Harassment, and their impact on individuals and/or groups,
 - b. working with a counsellor to mitigate any harm caused by an alleged incident,
 - c. training on the application of this and other College polices regarding Student and Employee conduct.
27. If the President believes that an alternative resolution process may be appropriate, this option will be discussed with the Complainant. If the Complainant agrees, the President will contact the Respondent to advise them that a Complaint has been made and that an alternative resolution is being requested. If the Respondent agrees to participate in an alternative resolution process, the President will explore the options available and, with the agreement of both parties, will refer the matter to that process for resolution.
28. Participation in an alternative resolution process is voluntary. Should either the Complainant or Respondent disagree with the alternative resolution process, the matter will proceed to Investigation.

Investigation

29. If informal resolution and/or an alternative resolution process are not pursued or do not resolve the matter, the President will appoint an internal or external Investigator to investigate the Complaint.
30. Participants in the investigation process have the option to have a support person present for interviews.
31. In all investigations, the Respondent will be informed of the allegations made against them and will be given an opportunity to respond.
32. The investigation will be conducted in a procedurally fair manner, using a process determined by the Investigator. The investigation process may include, but is not limited to, the following:

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

- a. requesting a written response to the Complaint from the Respondent, including a list of any potential witnesses along with a description of the information those witnesses are expected to provide, and any relevant documents, including any social media communications
 - b. meeting with or requesting further information from the Complainant, Respondent and/or from any other individuals who may have information relevant to the investigation, including any witnesses identified by the Complainant or the Respondent
 - c. obtaining any other evidence that may be relevant to the investigation
33. The Investigator will submit a written report to the President which will include the following information:
- a. a summary of the evidence considered;
 - b. any assessment of credibility that is required to render a determination; and
 - c. the Investigator's findings of fact, and a determination as to whether, on a balance of probabilities, this policy has been violated.
34. If the Investigator's report determines that Bullying and Harassment has occurred, or that this policy has otherwise been violated the President will determine the appropriate corrective measure or disciplinary sanctions including, where appropriate, dismissal or suspension. The Complainant and the Respondent will be notified of decision.
35. If the Investigator's Report determines that this policy has not been violated, the President will dismiss the Complaint and will notify the Complainant and the Respondent.
36. Investigations, including the preparation of the Investigator's report, will be completed within sixty (60) calendar days of the Investigator's receipt of the Complaint. If, during the course of the investigation the Investigator believes that this timeline cannot be met, the Investigator will contact the Complainant, the Respondent, and the President as soon as possible to inform them of the revised timeline.

Appeal

34. Both the Complainant and the Respondent will be informed of the option to appeal only on the grounds of:
- a. the decision lacked procedural fairness; or
 - b. there is relevant new information that was not available at the time of the decision was made that may have influenced the outcome.
35. A Complainant or Respondent may appeal the decision of the President.
36. The appeal must be submitted to the President in writing within ten (10) business days of the decision being received and must state the specific grounds for the appeal.
37. The Appeal will consider issues of procedural fairness or any relevant new information and will not reconsider the original Complaint. However, the President has the discretion to consider new evidence that could not reasonably have been available at the time of the investigation.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

38. The Appeal may be upheld or dismissed, in whole or in part, with a written decision and rationale provided to the Complainant and Respondent. The decision of the President is final.

Supporting the Workplace

39. Following a situation of bullying or harassment, supervisors will put measures in place to restore, support and maintain respect in the workplace. Early engagement in the workplace is important and requires cooperation by all employees.

Confidentiality

40. The College will not disclose any personal information related to an investigation except to the extent such disclosure is:
- c. expressly authorized by the affected individual;
 - d. to a Complainant, Respondent, witness, or other participant in the investigation, if necessary for the conduct of the investigation; or
 - e. authorized or required under law.

Documentation

41. All participants in a Bullying and Harassment complaint/investigation process are expected to maintain written accounts of the incident, resolution attempts, and outcomes. The College will keep a written record of investigations, including findings.

DEFINITIONS

Bullying and Harassment: Any inappropriate conduct or comment that a person knew or reasonably ought to have known would be humiliating or intimidating. The conduct may be written, verbal, physical, online, or electronic, a gesture or display, or any combination of these.

Complainant: A person who files a Complaint. In some instances, the College may act as a Complainant where it becomes aware of allegations of Bullying and Harassment that, if true, would violate this policy but no person comes forward with a Complaint, or where an investigation is required by law.

Complaint: A written submission alleging Bullying and Harassment.

Employee: An individual who is employed by the College on a full-time, part-time, permanent, temporary or contract basis.

Interim Measures: Such measures may include, but are not limited to: directing the Complainant, Respondent, witnesses or other parties to cease and desist from engaging in a particular type of behaviour; restricting access to a College campus or specific areas of a College campus; alteration of the learning or work schedule of an individual; imposing a no-contact directive; and/or temporary, non-disciplinary leave of an individual.

Respondent: A person or persons alleged to have engaged in conduct that violates this policy.

Student: A person who is enrolled as a student at the College in credit or non-credit courses
